

Saturday, May 16th 10am to 12pm

The Missing Chapter:
Walking African-American History

A glimpse into a little-known chapter in history – the homes built and lived in by African-Americans during and after slavery. Starts at HHS, continuing into the village of New Paltz. $12. $10 for Friends of Huguenot Street.

Saturday, May 16th 4 to 8pm
New Paltz Art Loop – See inset for details

Wednesday, May 27th 6 to 8pm

Fourth Wednesdays: Doggie Happy Hour

We kick off our Fourth Wednesday “Fun” Series with this special event. All dogs (and their owners) are welcome to share a drink and a treat – and meet a few new canine friends. On hand will be veterinarian and other experts to answer any questions dogs or their owners might have. $5.

Saturday, May 30th 11am to 5pm
Old New Paltz Day – Details on page 12

Sunday, May 31st 1 to 3pm

From the Street to the Lawn: A Tour de Paltz

Celebrate National Bike Month with a unique bike ride and historic tour. Leaving from HHS, ride along the river and along some of the area’s most historic and bucolic roads to Locust Lawn. Once there, enjoy refreshments and a tour of The Josiah Hasbrouck and Terwilliger Houses before heading back into town. Moderate 4.5 mile ride each way. Co-sponsored by the New Paltz Bike/Ped Committee.

Friday, June 5th 6pm

Colonial Overnight for Kids

See Just For Kids for details

Friday, June 12th 6pm

Saturday, June 13th 9am to 4pm

Huguenot Historical Society Annual Meeting

For Friends of Huguenot Street. Historic Huguenot Street open for tours.

Saturday, June 13th 7pm

Second Saturdays: Table Talk with Leslie

HHS kicks off a new Second Saturdays lecture series with an up-close and personal exploration. Start with a short talk by Curator Leslie LeFevre-Stratton about the many periods and styles of tables in our collections. Then it’s into the houses for an intimate tour of some of our finer tables. Perfect for the antique lover or collector. $10. $8 for Friends of Huguenot Street.

Saturday, June 20th 10am to 12pm

Historic Homeowners Series:

Introduction to Preservation

See inset for details

Saturday, June 20th 4 to 8pm

New Paltz Art Loop – See inset for details

Wednesday, June 24th 6 to 8pm

Fourth Wednesdays: Wickets and Wine

Fourth Wednesday fun continues with a whimsical game of croquet on the lawn of the Deyo House. Players of all levels are welcome. Lemonade, wine and snacks provided. $10. $8 for Friends of Huguenot Street.

Friday, June 26th 7 to 9pm

Candlelight Tour

A perfect follow-up to dinner at one of New Paltz’s unique downtown restaurants. We’ll start with drinks on the porch, followed by a special nighttime tour of the houses. $12. $10 for Friends of Huguenot Street.

Sunday, July 5th 10am to 12pm

Walk the Huguenot Path

A guided walk through the historic marshlands and oxbow lake of the Harcourt Preserve next to HHS. An easy 90 minute hike that explores the special topography, flora and history of this largely unknown area. $10. $8 for Friends of Huguenot Street.

Monday, July 6th through Friday, July 10th

Monday, July 20th through Friday, July 24th

9am to 3pm

What Lies Beneath: Archaeology Camp for Kids

See Just for Kids for details

Friday, July 10th 6pm

Colonial Overnight for Kids

See Just for Kids for details

Saturday, July 11th 7pm

Second Saturdays: TBA

Our monthly lecture series continues. Speaker to be announced. $3 suggested donation.

Music on the Street

Our popular early music series – Historic Music in an Historic Setting. This year we add two lawn concerts to those performed in the French Church.

Wednesday, July 22nd 7pm

Paul Carroll

The popular local musician will present a percussion extravaganza on shaded Deyo House lawn. Pieces by Xenakis, Norgard and Elliott Carter. Bring your blankets and even a picnic dinner and enjoy. $5 suggested donation.

Wednesday, August 26th 7pm

Young and Bacon

Local residents Marka Young (violin) and Jim Bacon (classical guitar) come together for an intimate lawn concert of classical music. $5 suggested donation.

Sunday, September 13th 4 to 6pm

Anima Baroque

Fresh, sincere, joyous and powerful, especially when performed in the simple beauty of the French Church. $15. $12 for Friends of Huguenot Street.

Thursday, July 16th 8 to 10pm

Movies on the Lawn: Weapons of the Spirit

Bring a blanket, a drink and even a picnic dinner and enjoy the story of the Huguenot residents of tiny Le Chambon-sur-Lignon who quietly defied the Nazis to hide and save over 3,000 Jews during World War II. The remarkable and inspiring story of a unique conspiracy of goodness. $5 suggested donation.

Friday, July 17th 8 to 9:30pm

Moonlight Magic Tour

As the full moon rises, you’ll be treated to drinks on the porch of the DuBois Fort, followed by a special walking tour of the Street – a tour that delves into the special role that the moon and its phases had on the lives of our early settlers. $12. $10 for Friends of Huguenot Street.

Saturday, July 18th 10am to 12pm

Historic Homeowners Series:

Researching Your Home’s Genealogy

See inset for details

Saturday, July 18th 10am to 12pm

The Missing Chapter:
Walking African-American History

See May 16th for description

Saturday, July 18th 4 to 8pm

New Paltz Art Loop – See inset for details

Sunday, July 19th 1 to 3pm

Mad Hatters Tea

Tea on the lawn and under the porte cochere of the historic Deyo House. The dining room in the Deyo House set for high Victorian tea. Embrace the sardonic nature of a whimsical tea party inspired by Alice in Wonderland. Limit of 25. Reservations strongly advised.

Wednesday, July 22nd 7pm

Fourth Wednesdays: Music on the Lawn

See Music on the Street inset for details

Saturday, July 25th 9am to 4pm

What Lies Beneath: Archaeology Day

Dirty fun for the amateur and expert alike. Two “hands-on” dig workshops on site. Morning session, adults only. Families are welcome to the afternoon session! Space is limited. Reservations advised.

Tuesdays and Thursdays,

Beginning August 4th 10am to 12pm

HIP! Drop-In for Kids

See Just for Kids for details

Saturday, August 8th 7pm

Second Saturdays: From Founders to Farmers

Eugene J. Boesch gives an archaeologist’s view of 19th century homes in the Hudson Valley. Boesch shares recent finds in homes of the elites, lesser landholders and local farmsteads. $3 suggested donation.

Friday, August 14th 6pm

Colonial Overnight for Kids

See Just for Kids for details

Historic Homeowners Series

Historic Huguenot Street is one of the finest examples in the Hudson Valley of preservation in action. P.J. Preuss, Historic Preservation Officer at HHS, leads this series. He shares his expertise, and the talents of other experts, in this limited series tailored to owners (and lovers) of our valley’s historic homes.

Introduction to Preservation

Saturday, June 20th

Researching Your Home’s Genealogy

Saturday, July 18th

Period Roofs and Windows

Saturday, August 15th

Historic Hardware

Saturday, September 19th

This series is designed for the hands-on individual or those who want to learn more. Limited to 15. Advance registration strongly advised. All sessions are held from 10am to 12pm in the Restoration Workshop except for 7/18, which is held in the Library. $80 for the series or $25 per session. To register, visit www.huguenotstreet.org or call 845.255.1660, ext. 300.

Saturday, August 15th 10am to 12pm

Historic Homeowners Series:

Period Roofs and Windows

See inset for details

Saturday, August 15th 4 to 8pm

New Paltz Art Loop – See inset for details

Sunday, August 16th 11am to 12pm

Behind the Scenes in the Archives

Executive Director Eric Roth invites you and a lucky few to step inside the organization’s archives for a private viewing of some of the treasures of our collection. Limited to 12. Reservations strongly advised. $12. $10 for Friends of Huguenot Street.

Sunday, August 16th 4 to 6pm

Wickets and Wine

See June 24th for details

Thursday, August 20th 8 to 10pm

Movies on the Lawn:

Across the River and Manhattan 1609

Bring a blanket, a drink and maybe even a picnic dinner to enjoy a short film about Young George Washington (shot in part at Historic Huguenot Street) and a longer recently-released film about the founding of New Netherland. $5 suggested donation.

Wednesday, August 26th 7pm

Fourth Wednesdays: Music on the Lawn

See Music on the Street inset for details

Saturday, August 29th 10am to 12pm

Historic Gardening

Tim Steinhoff, Director of Horticulture at Locust Grove in Poughkeepsie, talks about how they restored their historic gardens and how they maintain them. Master Gardener Susan Stegen will be on hand to answer questions about your garden and specific plants. $15. $12 for Friends of Huguenot Street.

Saturday, September 5th 10am to 12pm

The Churches of Huguenot Street

In 1683, the Huguenots erected their first church. This simple log structure was the first of four churches. This was the first of four churches. We’ll start in 1683 and walk through the history of “our” churches to the present day. Presented in collaboration with the Reformed Church of New Paltz. $12. $10 for Friends of Huguenot Street.

Saturday September 5th

Wine Tasting with Wendy Crispell

Taste your way through the historic travels of the Huguenots in Europe. Experience wines of the low countries, France, Belgium and Germany. Contact Shari Osborn at shari@huguenotstreet.org for more information.

Saturday, September 12th 7pm

Second Saturdays: Peter Kenny on the Met’s American Wing “Renewed”

Kenny, of the Department of Decorative Arts at the Metropolitan Museum of Art, will talk about the renewal and reopening of the popular American Wing.

Sunday, September 13th 4 to 6pm

Music on the Street: Anima Baroque

See inset for details

Friday, September 18th 7pm

Night at Our Museum:
The Past Comes to Life

The houses of Historic Huguenot Street appear to sit silently at night, but who really knows what happens inside. On this night only, guided by our night watchman, you’ll see the characters of the Street. $8. $20 for families.

Saturday, September 19th 4 to 10pm

HHS and the Samuel Dorsky Museum of Art Present Tim Davis

See Exhibits Inset

Saturday September 19th

Wine Tasting with Wendy Crispell

See September 5th for details

Saturday, September 26th 10am to 12pm

Stories In Stone: A Walk through the Old Huguenot Burying Ground

HHS is home to one of the oldest intact European burying grounds in the Hudson Valley. Hear the stories of people buried there and the burial rituals of times past. $10. $8 for Friends of Huguenot Street.

Sunday, September 27th 1 to 3pm

Hidden Huguenot Street

A walking tour featuring some of the not-so-obvious remnants of the past. $12. $10 for Friends of Huguenot Street.

Saturday, October 3rd 10am to 12pm

The Painted Ladies of the Village

A walking tour that starts at our own painted lady, the Deyo House, and continues up into the village of New Paltz. Featuring the village’s most interesting, historic and striking homes. $12. $10 for Friends of Huguenot Street.

Saturday October 3rd

Wine Tasting with Wendy Crispell

See September 5th for details

Sunday, October 4th 6:30 to 8pm

Harvest Moon Walking Tour

Drinks on the Fort porch followed by a special walking tour about this special moon – much anticipated by farmers of long ago. $12. $10 for Friends of Huguenot Street.

Saturday, October 10th 11am to 6pm

Celebration of the Arts (COTA)

HHS hosts this annual event, which is presented by the Arts Community. Visit www.celebrationofthearts.net for more info.

Saturday, October 10th 7pm

Second Saturdays: Take a Seat with Leslie

Curator Leslie LeFevre-Stratton will start with a short talk about the history of chairs and highlight important pieces in our collection. Then you’ll join Leslie for a foray into the houses for an up-close look. $12. $10 for Friends of Huguenot Street.

Saturday, October 17th 10am to 12pm

From the Street to the Lawn: A Tour de Paltz

See May 31st for details

Saturday, October 17th 4 to 8pm

New Paltz Art Loop – See inset for details

Sunday, October 18th 4 to 8pm

Wickets and Wine

See June 24th for details

Saturday, October 25th 2 or 4pm

Haunted Hunt

Kids age 2 to 10 are invited for this simple, mystery-filled scavenger hunt. $5 per child.

Thursday, October 29th 7pm to Midnight

Friday, October 30th

Saturday, October 31st

Haunted Huguenot Street

Our popular Halloween event returns. This year we’ve “Quadrized” the event with special colonial Dutch folklore and scary tales in honor of the 400th anniversary of Hudson’s voyage. $9 in advance. $11 at the door.