HHS Exclusive! Custom Holiday Cards Based on Deyo Quilt Panels
$16 for a hand-wrapped set of 8

Finding that special, unique holiday card can be challenging. Instead of spending hours looking in catalogs or online, or standing in the stores searching, look to the Museum Shop to assist you.

This year, HHS is offering a limited run of holiday cards based on a circa 1850 quilt made for Rev. Ephraim Deyoe and his wife Anna by members of the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer in Ramsay, New Jersey for the minister's retirement.

The cards, which will be custom-wrapped boxes of eight, feature four holiday-themed panels from this colorful red, green and golden yellow quilt. The quilt is a wonderful example of a mid 19th century album quilt – a popular style of quilt so named because each block of the quilt is the product of a different maker and features a different design.

Just 50 sets have been printed. Cards may be ordered online by visiting the Museum Shop at www.huguenotstreet.org, by mailing the form below or by calling Visitor Center Coordinator Rebecca Mackey at (845) 255-1889.

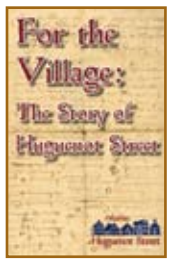
$11.95



The perfect stocking stuffer – and you can only get it here! The story of the brave men and women who fled persecution to create the unique village we know today as Historic Huguenot Street. Includes rich full-color photographs of the street and the houses. The history of each family homestead, including the houses of Locust Lawn, is featured in special highlighted sections. 48 pages.

Consignments Welcomed in Museum Shop

In addition to featuring a variety of items from selected vendors, the Museum Shop in the DuBois Fort Visitor Center welcomes consigned items that relate to the shop's stock and that are of interest to supporters and visitors. Consignment is a win-win, as it allows HHS to offer more in the Museum Shop without the initial layout of purchasing stock and it gives smaller vendors a targeted way to reach customers. If you would like to discuss the possibility of consigning art, jewelry, handmade products or other items, please contact Rebecca Mackey, Visitor Center Coordinator, at (845) 255-1889 or shop@huguenotstreet.org.
